Privacy Statement

1. General

This privacy statement describes how Fast Hazard B.V. handles personal data.

Ensuring the privacy and confidentiality of information entrusted to us is important. As part of this fundamental obligation, we are committed to ensuring the protection and correct use of your personal information (referred to as “personal data”). We only collect personal data that you voluntarily provide to us by email or as an online visitor with the aim of providing you with information and/or services. In this Privacy Statement you can read how we collect, use, share and protect personal data. Our Privacy Statement may change from time to time if new developments give reason to do so.

2. Collection and use of personal data

Fast Hazard collects personal information if you choose to provide it to us. Your personal information will not be used for purposes other than the purposes for which you provided this information to us.

3. Storage of personal data

We do not store personal data for longer than is strictly necessary to achieve the goals for which the personal data is collected. For example, there is no deliberate retention period for the period after the end of a project.

However, all email traffic is automatically stored in the email archive. Your email address and data on the 'digital signature' of your emails will therefore remain in our archive for an indefinite period. At your request, we will retrieve and delete these.

4. Sharing personal data with third parties

We do not share personal information with third parties, except as necessary to fulfil your request, for our professional and legitimate purposes or as required by law.

5. Cookies

Our website (www.fast-hazard.com) uses cookies and scripts from Google to analyze your use of our website anonymously. The purpose of this is to optimize the functionality and effectiveness of our website.

6. View, modify or delete data

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. In addition, you have the right to withdraw your consent for data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data by us. You can send the request for access, correction, deletion or request for withdrawal of your consent to the email address info@fast-hazard.com. We will respond to your request as soon as possible, but within 4 weeks. In addition, you have the option to file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority via the following link: <https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/nl/zelf-doen/privacyrechten/privacyklacht-indienen>

7. Security of your personal data

Fast Hazard has taken appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access, unwanted disclosure and unauthorized modification. If you have the idea that your data is not properly secured or there are indications of misuse, please contact us via the address below.
